STRATEGIC TAKEAWAYS

1 · The GLP-1 / PCOS lane is empty

Of 10 incumbents, zero ship dedicated GLP-1 or PCOS modes. Noom flirts with behavioral content but doesn't tailor the food log to medication cycles or cycle phases.

2 · Pricing is opaque on purpose

MyFitnessPal, Lifesum, and Foodvisor hide pricing behind onboarding. Users complain about surprise paywalls — KkaloAI's "no payment for trial" + transparent tier list is a direct counter-position.

3 · AI without user control loses trust

SnapCalorie / Cal AI / Foodvisor all use AI photo recognition — but force you to accept the AI's portion estimate. The 0.5×–2.5× confirm-and-adjust slider is unique, and reviews confirm "AI got it wrong" is the #1 churn reason in this category.

4 · Health Connect is still niche

Most competitors do one-way Apple Health export. Native two-way Health Connect matters as Android wearables (Pixel Watch, Galaxy Ring, Oura Android) explode. KkaloAI ships first.

5 · Anonymous trial removes the #1 funnel leak

Cal AI, Lifesum, Yazio require account + payment method up-front. Industry data: ~50% drop-off at email gate. KkaloAI delays both until value is proven.

6 · Viral share is undermonetized everywhere

None of the top apps export progress as TikTok-friendly visuals. KkaloAI's 3D scan + daily-win share cards turn users into a CAC channel — directly aligned with the planned TikTok-led growth strategy.

STOP GUESSING. START KNOWING.
